Created by proportion>london to answer the need for authentic looking vintage bust and body forms: the quality and visual appeal of this innovative collection has never been surpassed. Made in London, England to your bespoke specification, by skilled craftspeople, the selection process is remarkably simple:

- select a proportion>london body or bust form
- choose a covering fabric. Traditional calico is our standard (but we have many more besides)
- specify your fabric finish - from gently love-worn to heavily distressed!
- select a base, neckcap or the embellishments of your choice.

Shown here, are a selection of our favourite figures, but we appreciate that vintage style is all about individuality, so are happy to facilitate your specific requests.

Vintage Original is simply the most authentic collection of age-worn bust forms available today.
